

BANKRUPTCY & COMMERCIAL SECTION OF THE BIRMINGHAM BAR ASSOCIATION

 Annual CLE

August 26, 2022

1:00 to 4:30 p.m.

Birmingham Bar Center on 2nd Avenue North

SPEAKERS AND TOPICS

- |           |                                                                                                                                                                                        |
|-----------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1:00-2:00 | Ethics UpdateSpeaker: Jeremy McIntire, Deputy Chief General Counsel,Alabama State Bar                                                                                          |
| 2:00-2:15 | Break                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| 2:15-2:30 | State of the CourtsSpeaker: Mac Halcomb                                                                                                                                            |
| 2:30-3:15 | Town HallSpeakers: Judges Tamara Mitchelland Sims Crawford                                                                                                                     |
| 3:15-3:30 | Break                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| 3:30-4:00 | Consumer Segment: Using the Homeowners AssistanceFund to Help Consumers in BankruptcySpeaker: Scott Allums                                                                     |
| 4:00-4:30 | Commercial Segment: Section 547(c)(4) New Valuein the 11 th Circuit after Auriga Polymers, Inc. andIn re BFW LiquidationSpeaker: Thomas Humphries |